Iraqi labor leaders to visit

Journal Sentinel staff

Posted: May 23, 2005

Labor leaders from Iraq are scheduled to visit Milwaukee next month to talk about the war and its aftermath, a group called U.S. Labor Against the War announced Monday.

The group, which is a national coalition of 112 labor organizations representing more than 4 million union members, is bringing a delegation of six trade union activists from Iraq to tour more than 20 cities nationwide.

Delegates are scheduled to appear 7 p.m. June 20 at the Teamsters hall, 6200 W. Blue Mound Road.

Among the event's sponsors are the Teamsters, the Milwaukee County Labor Council, the Steelworkers and the American Federation of Teachers.
