

"Iraqi Labor Leaders Speak-UNITE Hall, Chicago, June 17, 2005"

Labor Beat TV show, Chicago, IL

Chicago Cablecast information

It was an historic event for Chicago labor when two representatives of the FWCUI from Iraq spoke at UNITE Hall in Chicago in June. Falah Awan, President Federation of Workers Councils and Unions of Iraq, and Amjad Al-Jawhary Representative for FWCUI in North America discussed the effects of the U.S. occupation and their struggle to establish a way forward for Iraqi workers and unemployed in the face of the reactionary policies of the puppet government, and the FWCUI's call for the immediate withdrawal of U.S. Troops. Noel Beasley, International Vice President of UNITE HERE, provides an introduction.
